BOYD VOTES TO PROHIBIT RELEASE OF REMAINING FINANCIAL RESCUE FUNDS

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Citing the lack of accountability and oversight in the implementation of the financial rescue package, Congressman Boyd today announced his vote to prohibit the release of remaining financial rescue funds.

The goal of the TARP was to inject liquidity into the financial markets so that the banks could turn around and lend to the real economy.

“Our nation is facing serious economic challenges, and my top priorities are to create jobs, grow our economy, and protect the middle class,” Boyd said.

Yesterday, Congressman Boyd supported legislation that would overhaul the TARP to strengthen accountability and ensure that the funds are used for their intended purpose.
